Seen & Heard Around Murray

Call it "keeping your cool", apolomb, or what have you, but anyway, our brother-in-law over at Fulton epitomized it Sunday afternoon at the wedding of one of his daughters.

Possessor of a fine voice, he doubled at the wedding by rendering two vocal selections. He also gave the bride away later in the ceremony.

But anyway to get back to keeping cool, there he was singing one of the songs when his music got too close to the candles and caught on fire. The page of the song book blazed up and he tried to quench the fire with one hand. When this proved fruitless, he took a deep breath and blew out the burning page without missing a note.

He carried it off so well that the conflagration was missed by many.

We were struck by one phrase in the wedding ceremony to which the two participants subscribed. This concerned "for-saking all others".

We mused on how much this phrase is violated in society today.

Down on Kentucky Lake Saturday night and on the way back we spotted an enormous Owl winging his way silently through the night air. Woe to any small nocturnal creature spotted by this denizen of the night.

A Wood Thrush hopped up on the patio late yesterday, looked at us suspiciously then flew off to more productive grounds under the Iron Oak tree.

He differs from the Thrasher since he is smaller, shorter, has a shorter tail and shorter bill. He is more secretive, more introverted and less rambunctious. Colored about the same and he hops. The Thrasher walks.

So uncertain is the weather that we had heat, air conditioning and nothing at all during the past week.

J.T. Anderson Dies At Benton Hospital

J. T. (Trout) Anderson of Hardin Route One, age 95, died Saturday at 7:35 a.m. at the Benton Municipal Hospital.

The deceased was a retired farmer and a member of the Olive Baptist Church.

Survivors are one son, John Anderson of Hardin; one brother, Rex Anderson of Hardin Route One; two grandchildren, Mrs. Mac Tucker of Hardin Route One and Joe Mason Anderson of the U.S. Navy, Albany, Ga.; five great grandchildren. ## Senator Hubbard Speaker At Meet Here Wednesday

State Senator Carroll Hubbard of Mayfield will be the guest speaker at a Citizenship Responsibility Rally at Memorial Baptist Church Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Special local guests for the meeting will be representatives of city government and of the Police Department.

This meeting is planned in appreciation of the benefits given to each citizen by law and government, and as a reminder to each individual of their responsibility as a citizen. Hubbard will speak on the subject "The Christian's Responsibility As A Citizen".

This program is in cooperation with Law Day USA, which is a national observance in May. Law Day USA is a day of celebration by the American people in appreciation of their liberties, and also a reaffirmation of their loyalty to the United States of America.

"It is a time of rededication of the ideals of equality and justice under law in relation with each other as well as with other nations, and for the cultivation of respect for law that is so vital to the democratic way of life," a church spokesman said.

The evening's activities will start at 6:30 with a church wide fellowship supper in the church basement.

Any interested persons are invited and urged to attend this special meeting. A time for questions and discussion will be provided after the talk by Hubbard.

Three Places Are Vandalized Here

Vandalism was reported at three business places last night, according to the reports made to the Murray Police Department this morning.

Stokes Tractor and Implement Company, Industrial Road, reported that fourteen windows were broken out of the building on the west side, all wires were pulled off two tractors and thrown on the ground, and the headlights were broken out of four tractors.

Fitts Block Company said the windshields on two trucks were broken out, three windows were broken out in the building, fifteen four inch blocks were broken, and melt plates were pushed off of carts.

Murray Tire Mart, East Main Street, said four windows were broken out on the west side of the building and rocks were found on the floor.

Marie Branch of Embassy Apartments reported to the police today that a Peoples Savings bank book and fifty golf balls were stolen from her apartment. The report said someone had pushed the screen off the kitchen door.

Traffic Accidents Investigated Here

Two traffic collisions were investigated by the Murray Police Department on Saturday. No injuries were reported.

The first occurred at 6:01 a.m. Saturday between a 1965 Ford two door driven by Lloyd Winston Horn of 1713 Calloway, Murray, and a 1964 Chevrolet four door owned by Clyde Sherman Johnson, 1203 Story Avenue, Murray, owned by Lakely, Inc., Southside Shopping Center.

Horn was going west on Calloway, crossed over the left lane and struck the Johnson car which was parked on the side of the street in front of 1705 Calloway Avenue, according to the police report. Horn was reported returning home from work and he went to sleep at the wheel, according to reports. Damage to the Horn car was on the front and left side, and to the Chevrolet on the rear end.

Cars involved in the collision at 8:45 a.m. Saturday were a 1965 Chevrolet four door driven by Dimple Hendricks of Hazel and a 1967 Pontiac two door owned by John Sammons and driven by Thomas Steve Sammons, 1105 Elm Street, Murray. Police said the Capps car was stopped at the yield right of way sign on Sycamore. Sammons failed to see the Capps car stopped and hit it in the left rear, according to the police report.

Damage to the Capps car was on the left rear and to the Sammons car on the right front fender.

TWELVE CITED

Twelve persons were cited by the Murray Police Department over the weekend. They were two for driving while intoxicated, two for reckless driving, five for public drunkenness, one for driving while intoxicated and driving on revoked license, one for no helmet, and one for unnecessary noise.

Fellowships Are Awarded To 5 At MSU

Two-year fellowships have been awarded to five students for graduate study at Murray State University on the Specialist in College Teaching degree to prepare teachers for community and junior colleges.

Students selected and their areas of study are: Jeanette Cahney of Murray, art; Michael Boulard of Paducah, communications; Mrs. Carol Hayes of Murray, physics; Kathryn Morris of Paducah, business; and William Cornell Peyton of Murray, history.

Dr. Robert W. Collins, director of higher education and coordinator of the fellowship programs, announced the recipients. He said each will receive $2,400 for the first year and $2,600 for the second year, with an additional $500 for each eligible dependent and payment of resident or non-resident fees.

The fellowship program is supported by funding approved in the Education Professions Development Act of 1968. Two appropriations amounting to $160,000 have been authorized for Murray State University to support 16 fellowships.

Collins announced the latest allocation of $60,000, which increases the number of fellowships from the original 10 to 16. In March it provides for new fellowships to begin this fall and end in the summer of 1972 and renews the 10 existing fellowships.

The five students selected for fellowships were chosen by a campus committee from eligible applicants.

Several non-fellowship students interested in two-year college teaching have also entered the program, according to Collins, who emphasized that the Specialist in College Training program is not limited to students on fellowship.

Neuma W. Lyon Is Claimed By Death

Neuma Waters Lyon of 304 South Sixth Street, Murray, died at 8:30 p.m. Sunday at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital. He was 70 years of age.

The deceased was born September 2, 1899, in Puryear, Tenn., and was the son of Robert W. Lyon and Esther Shankle Lyon. He was married October 16, 1920, to Ida Lee Goodman who preceded him in death September 18, 1949. He then married Amanda Jane Francis of Glasgow September 15, 1963, who survives.

Angels And Athletics Split Two Games Sunday; KC Wins

By STU CAMEN
UPI Sports Writer

Jim Perry and Jim Rooker, who earn their living as pitchers, found out how the other half lives when they came up with key hits in helping their clubs to victory. But Greg Garrett proved his own worst enemy when he walked four Oakland batters in the 10th inning to force across the winning run as the Athletics beat California, 6-5, in the second game of a double-header.

The Angels won the opener, 7-1, as Roger Repoz drove in four runs with a pair of doubles. Perry ignited a five-run third inning for Minnesota with a single as the Twins beat Milwaukee, 6-1, and moved into first place in the American League West by a half game over California.

Rooker doubled home two runs in a four-run 11th inning as Kansas City completed a doubleheader sweep over Chicago, 8-4. The Royals won the opener, 3-2, in 10 innings on Joe Keough's fourth hit of the game which drove in Amos Otis with an unearned run.

Rain washed out the rest of the American League schedule with Detroit at New York, Cleveland at Boston and Baltimore at Washington all losing out to the uncooperative weatherman. Perry, in upping his record to 6-2, limited the Brewers to six hits, including a run-scoring single by opposing pitcher Lew Krausse. Tony Oliva drove in two of the five runs with a double and the inning was capped by Leo Cardenas' run-scoring double.

Rooker scattered nine hits in going the route and evened his record at 2-2. Reliever Wilbur Wood, who was the victim of Rooker's second double, had the unenviable distinction of being charged with both White Sox losses. Keep Rally Alive

In the opener, Otis doubled with two out in the 10th and the Royals' rally was kept alive when third baseman Syd O'Brien made a wide throw to first base on Bob Oliver's routine grounder. Keough then followed with his hit that snapped Chicago's four-game winning streak and gave reliever Al Fitzmorris his third win.

Oakland, trailing 5-2 in the eighth inning of the nightcap against California, tied the game on a solo homer by Felipe Alou and a two-run blast by Sal Bando. Garrett walked Bando to open the 10th and after Don Mincher sacrificed, Dave Duncan received an intentional walk. The strategy looked good when the rookie hurler struck out Joe Rudi, but Roberto Pena and Bert Campaneris walked to force across the winning run.

Lefty Clyde Wright, thanks to Repoz' hitting and ninth-inning relief from Ken Tatum, won the opener for the Angels who batted around in the fourth and sixth innings when they scored all their runs. Alex Johnson slammed his third homer for California as Wright raised his record to 5-2.

And, although Blancas was the winner, one would never know it from the happy grin on that other Latin's face.

"I'm not going to charge him anything for that tip," Trevino chuckled. "After all, he is one of the brothers. Hey, let's have something to drink. You ain't never had a Mexican winner and second place, too."

It was strictly a three-horse race down the stretch since Kel Nagle finished fourth way back at two-under 278 to take home $5,850. Hale Irvin and Bob Charles tied for fourth at 279 and won $4,812 each.

At his last tournament win, the 1966 Seattle-Everett Open, Blancas took a nine-stroke lead into the final nine holes and then won by only a stroke.

"I like close finishes," he said. Trevino, despite his loss, had reason to be jubilant. His second-place dead-end earnings moved him past the $100,000 mark this year, the first golfer to reach that plateau.

Only Six Positions Still Open For Memorial Day 500

By KURT FREUDENTHAL

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—The speedway's first 170 miles per hour front row was poised today for the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race, with only six positions still open in the 33-car field and Al Unser leading the pack.

As expected, the Albuquerque, N.M., racing veteran won the pole position Saturday, but he missed the two-year-old records set by Joe Leonard in a turbine-powered machine.

Still, the 27 qualifiers who made successful weekend trial runs check in at a speed slightly faster than last year's final field—167.038 miles per hour.

Unser Wins Pole

Unser won the pole at a clip of 170.221 m.p.h., nosing out surprise speedster Johnny Rutherford, Fort Worth, Tex., by eight-thousandths of a second in the closest "battle for the pole" in Speedway history. Rutherford, in a four-year-old car, averaged 170.213, and A. J. Foyt, Houston, Tex., three-time race winner and defending pole champion, was the third fastest at 170.004 to complete the front row for race day.

New York sports car ace Peter Revson was the fastest of Sunday's 10 qualifiers, averaging 167.942 m.p.h. for his four-lap sprint.

Other Saturday qualifiers, in order of their speeds:

Other Qualifiers

Sports Parade

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Nobody, not even Avis, tries harder than Jake Gibbs.

"Maybe that was my trouble," he says rather wistfully.

"I guess I tried too hard," Jake Gibbs, the highest priced bonus player in all the history of the New York Yankees, used the past tense when he made that remark and it wasn't entirely by accident.

He's 31 now, no longer the All-American boy he was when the Yanks gave him $105,000 to sign with them out of the University of Mississippi nine years ago and although he still keeps trying it is quite safe to say that the major portion of his career is behind him, not in front of him.

Doesn't Grumble

Gibbs has taken part in only 10 games so far this season and it's no secret around the Yankees that Thurman Munson, the 22-year-old ex-Kent Stater, is the club's No. 1 catcher now and also its catcher of the future. That's no secret even from Jake Gibbs. But he doesn't grumble about the or a moratorium.

A lawsuit filed by two umpires, Al Salerno and Bill Valentine, will reach the 2nd Circuit Court of Appeals next week. Salerno and Valentine were fired in 1968 and they filed a suit claiming baseball is a monopoly, violating antitrust laws.

Baseball is also facing a suit resulting from the transfer of the Seattle Pilot franchise to Milwaukee after one season.

The Flood trial is expected to last about two weeks. But the verdict by Judge Cooper is sure to be appealed to the Circuit Court of Appeals by the lower and then eventually to the Supreme Court.

The players have rejected the owners' offer of a three-year basic contract but the owners last week simply offered it back to the players. Some of the players are in favor of a strike bad hand he was dealt.

Jake Gibbs was everybody's quarterback in his day. He had two avenues open to him after being graduated from Ole Miss. He could go into pro football if he had a mind to, or baseball. He chose baseball.

"I'm not sorry," Gibbs says despite his .227 lifetime average and the fact he never hit more than .258 or drove in more than 29 runs in any one of his six major league seasons. "I think I made the right choice. Who knows, I might've not made it in pro football. There was no guarantee."

Ralph Houk loves Gibbs. Possibly because he was a backup catcher with the Yankees also and in some ways his career paralleled Gibbs' although nobody ever came running after Houk with any $105,000 bonus.

Always Ready To Play

Jake hasn't let what happened to him sour his outlook. He cheerfully catches batting practice and also helps out in the bullpen. He doesn't get the call too often, but he's always ready to play.

When the baseball season is over Gibbs serves as assistant football coach at Mississippi and had a hand in the development of quarterback Archie Manning last fall.

"I still like the game," he says. "You mean football?" somebody asked him.

"Yes," Jake answered. "He thought an instant and then added:

"Baseball, too. I like 'em both."

Holdout

NEW YORK (UPI)—The only rival player who did not vote for Lew Alcindor as the National Basketball Association Rookie of the Year was Lucius Allen, a former teammate of Alcindor at UCLA.

FILLIE NETTERS — These twelve Murray State University coeds have captured seven wins this season, with their only loss going to Vanderbilt University in the first game of the season. Remaining tennis matches are with Belmont College, in Nashville, and Eastern Kentucky in Richmond. The winning Fillies are, left to right, Paula Carbonell, Key West, Fla., Coach Mita Graham; Cindy Almendinger, Cincinnati, Ohio; Kay Carter, Vandalia, Ill.; Carolyn Wells, Murray; Chris Kodman, Murray; Nancy Porter, Windsor, Ontario; Chris Matze, Dumont, N.J.; Carol Stopper, Cincinnati, Ohio; Jan Orner, Philadelphia, Pa.; Vicki Russell, Mayfield; Elsa Cohen, Philadelphia, Pa.; and Lynne Raque, Louisville.

Aaron Gets 3000th Hit; Braves Lose Double Header

By VITO STELLINO
UPI Sports Writer

Hank Aaron will never forget his 3,000th hit but he'd like to forget the day he got it.

Aaron became the ninth player in baseball history to reach the milestone Sunday but he wasn't in a celebrating mood because the Atlanta Braves dropped a doubleheader to the Cincinnati Red, 6-1 and 7-6, in 15 innings.

The crowd of 33,217 — the largest in Cincinnati in 23 years — gave him a rousing ovation.

Was Just Starting

Aaron, now 36, was just starting, though. He tagged Simpson for a two-run homer in the third his 570th to give the Braves a 3-0 lead. The Reds tied it, 3-3, but Aaron singled in the three-run 10th that put the Braves ahead, 6-3. That gave him 3,002 hits.

But in the last of the 10th, Tony Perez got his fifth hit and Johnny Bench and Lee May homered. In the 15th, winning pitcher Don Gullett singled in the deciding run.

When Aaron was asked what his next goal is, he said, "to win a game."

In other games, St. Louis edged Chicago, 4-3, Montreal nipped Pittsburgh, 5-7, Los Angeles blanked San Francisco, 8-0, and San Diego beat Houston, 5-3. The New York at Philadelphia game was rained out.

Triples Home Tying Run

Pinch-hitter Vic Davalillo tripled home the tying run and scored the winning run on a single by pinch-hitter Leron Lee in the seventh inning as the Cardinals beat the Cubs, Ferguson Jenkins suffered his sixth loss of the season.

Bobby Wine and Mack Jones slugged sixth inning homers as Montreal snapped a 5-5 tie and went on to beat Pittsburgh. Rusty Staub also homered for the Expos.

Claude Osteen pitched a four-hitter to give Los Angeles the victory over San Francisco. The Dodgers won it with a six-run fifth inning. Maury Wills stole two bases and got two hits in the inning.

Ivan Murrell drove in three runs to give San Diego the victory over Houston. Murrell singled in his first three trips, with his second hit driving in two runs in the third inning to break a 1-1 tie. Steve Huntz and Chris Cannizzaro each added homers.

Y. A. Tittle Signs As Coach With NY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Y. A.

Tittle, the dynamic quarterback who led the New York Giants to three consecutive Eastern Division titles in the National Football League in the early 1960s, was signed Monday as a coach by the Giants.

Tittle, who guided the Giants to titles in 1961-62-63, will join their training camp on July 15 as quarterback coach.

Tittle, injured during the 1964 season, retired the following year and served as offensive backfield coach for the San Francisco Forty-Niners. He resigned recently to move closer to his business interests.

Graduation losses

NEW YORK (UPI)—Both NCAA basketball champion UCLA and runner-up Jacksonville lose only one player from their starting lineups via graduation this year. Bruin guard John Vallely and Dolphin guard Rex Morgan.

brought her friend over to have a look.

I watched my daughter become increasingly self-conscious and shrink further and further away from people—even children her own age.

Abby, I know this is too long to print, but please remind people to keep personal remarks to themselves. The child is aware of the abnormal condition, but may be on some strong drug that is saving his life, as it is in our case. We thank God for the medicine that made her fat.

DEAR MOTHER: All personal remarks, including how "tall, short, thin, and fat" are unkind. Even remarks, meant to be a compliment, such as "What lovely eyelashes your little boy has—what a pity to waste them on a boy," can be embarrassing to the child. (I once knew a boy who, after hearing this a number of times, cut his eyelashes off with a scissors.)

DEAR ABBY: That letter about "grandma" age 74 and "grandpa," 83, sure made me laugh. The question was, "Will the neighbors talk if they share an apartment to save expenses, altho they aren't married, and there is nothing between them but friendship?"

I think I can answer that question. They certainly will. My husband has been dead for 9 years, and an old friend of mine lost his wife 15 years ago. We've known each other since grammar school. I don't drive, so this nice old gentleman brings me my groceries once a week. (Of course I pay for them.)

He stays maybe an hour just visiting with me. I have heard that my neighbors are shocked! I am 81 and he is 82, and he lives with his mother who is 97. Doesn't that beat everything?

"TALKED ABOUT AT 81"

DEAR TALKED ABOUT: It sure does!

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

CAN YOUR HOME ESCAPE??

Only An Expert
Can Tell You For Sure

TERMITES WORK SILENTLY,
SECRETLY AND DESTRUCTIVELY

Almost every home in the nation is threatened with invasion, or has already been invaded by termites. They may reveal their presence through visible destruction but more often their work goes unseen. You could be totally unaware of the fact that thousands of termites had invaded and were feeding in the under-structure of your home... traveling through the foundation... and infesting the ground under your expensive landscaping.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—The clamor for a "selling climax" on the stock market comes mainly from people who don't know what they are talking about, according to Wright Investors' Service. "The conviction of another Black Friday now" could spread "instant epidemic" across the country, bring "bankruptcy" to many, paralyze the nation, and "destroy the administration's credibility" at home and abroad, the firm says.

The price level or timing of an eventual bottom cannot be predicted because the background psychology is mainly bearish and human emotions are so susceptible to sudden news changes, Hayden, Stone Inc. says. There appears to be too many reasons both technical and psychological for the market to make much headway without a necessary period of prior price consolidation or a tangible and definite break in the generally somber news, the firm says.

If the game in Cambodia is successful in shortening the war and bringing realistic negotiations this summer, a rapid improvement in psychology could take place on the market, Halsey, Stuart & Co. Inc. says. The firm also adds "it may be possible to run a low-productivity, graft-ridden banana republic with rampant inflation," but not "a capital intensive economy" such as that in the United States.

The best and most lasting rallies are the ones that can occur on their own and the current market is one that needs something dramatic or immediate if it is going to have a rally on a news announcement, not promises or predictions, said E. F. Hutton & Co.

Letter To Editor

Dear Editor: While doing my student teaching at Hazel Elementary School under the supervision of Crystal Parks, I have had the opportunity to realize the value of taking advantage of the co-operation and assistance available from the community.

The South Central Bell Telephone Company and Mr. Carpenter were particularly helpful to me when I was teaching "Communications" to the second grade. They provided, on request, the teletrainer, filmstrips, charts, and booklets on the history of communication, how the telephone works, proper use of the telephone, and telephone courtesy.

It was very encouraging to learn through this experience, and others related to me by Hazel teachers, that such educational materials are available, locally to any teacher or person desiring to instruct in this particular phase of education.

Sincerely,
Phyllis Swindler
